Application description:

The application allows users to create a wish list of the movies they would like to watch. The application will also recommend movies based on the user's wishlist.

DB Choice:

The application itself will be a Flask Python web application that will connect to the MySQL database on Google Cloud Platform.